

Dear Friends,

Swami Kriyananda, founder and inspiration of Ananda Sangha, has worked tirelessly for nearly 60 years to keep Paramhansa Yogananda's teachings not just alive, but vibrantly dynamic. He has established seven communities, several schools, teaching centres and retreats throughout America and Europe. None of this would have been possible without the help of generous donors. Let us now help him fulfill his dream for India. Turn this page over to see some of Swamiji's plans for building Paramhansa Yogananda's mission here. Are you interested in one or more of these projects? Your contribution, large or small, will help manifest Swami Kriyananda's vision.

Many blessings to you from our gurus.

I had gone a-begging from door to door in the village path, when thy golden chariot appeared in the distance like a gorgeous dream and I wondered who was this King of all kings!

My hopes rose high and methought my evil days were at an end, and I stood waiting for alms to be given unasked and for wealth scattered on all sides in the dust. The chariot stopped where I stood. Thy glance fell on me and thou camest down with a smile. I felt that the luck of my life had come at last. Then of a sudden thou didst hold out thy right hand and say, "What has thou to give me?"

Ah, what a kingly jest was it to open thy palm to a beggar to beg! I was confused and stood undecided, and then from my wallet I slowly took out the least little grain of corn and gave it to thee.

But how great was my surprise when at the day's end I emptied my bag on the floor to find a least little grain of gold among the poor heap! I bitterly wept and wished that I had had the heart to give thee my all.
